Definition of Funds under Management For Investor and Financial Members

'Funds under Management' should be calculated by reference to the total value of investor commitments plus any undrawn committed capital (capital would include both capital and loans). It includes capital drawn down to be used for management fees/costs. It does not include capital contributed by the firm and amounts which were drawn-down and subsequently returned by investors.

Declaration (please tick)

We understand that the BVCA may undertake such due diligence on our application that it deems necessary and this may include the taking of references. The decision of the BVCA on our application is final. We also agree, as a firm, to abide by the BVCA Code of Conduct. We will also provide a company profile for entry into the BVCA member directory.
